

Book Update 04

Well, here come the Tariffs, there goes the Economy! All the stock markets are falling like hell and inflation is rising in the background! Higher prices are coming on everything you buy! Is this what you voted for? An Economic Nightmare?

The slashing of benefits and services from the very government who's suppose to help us achieve the American Dream? The firing of thousands of important workers who save lives on a daily basis! You may not have voted for it, but it's what you got! Incompetency at a level never before seen in generations!

Group chats of classified information by top officials on unsecured methods of communication! Putting our service men and women at risk of injury or even death! Compromising our intelligent community like never before! And this is just the first 90 days of this administration, what's next?

Hold on to your hats and your bank accounts! The worst is yet to come!!!
